Elizabeth Johnson

Dear Mrs. Johnson,

It has certainly been grand knowing and having you as a teacher, advisor, and friend. I've really missed home in these past two years. I had so much fun during the first two. Thanks ever so much for your patience and understanding with us, plus the "Sr. Party" you gave us, and all the many extra nice things. Best wishes for more happy years here at Cobb and at home to a grand friend.

With Love, Linda

Dear Mrs. Johnson,

Well, here it is the end of another year. It certainly has been wonderful having you for a teacher. See good news during the coming summer and don't work too hard.

Love ya,
Adelly

Dear Mrs. Johnson,

It sure has been nice knowing you and having you as a teacher and friend. Remember all the nights after school that Guy and I have stayed and had something to eat. It sure was nice of you and I want to thank you a lot.

As Ever
Skeeter

Dear Mrs. Johnson,

It has been a lot of fun having classes under you. I have had a lot of fun in the 4 years that I have been in Home Ec. Here wishing you a lot of luck and happiness in the year to come. I always remember you as a wonderful person.

Lots of Luck
Lots of Love
Deloris

Dear Mrs. Johnson

As we run school I want to thank you for all the things you did for me in study hall like doing nothing and just you lots of love in the future.

as ever
Ken. K

Dear Mrs. Johnson,

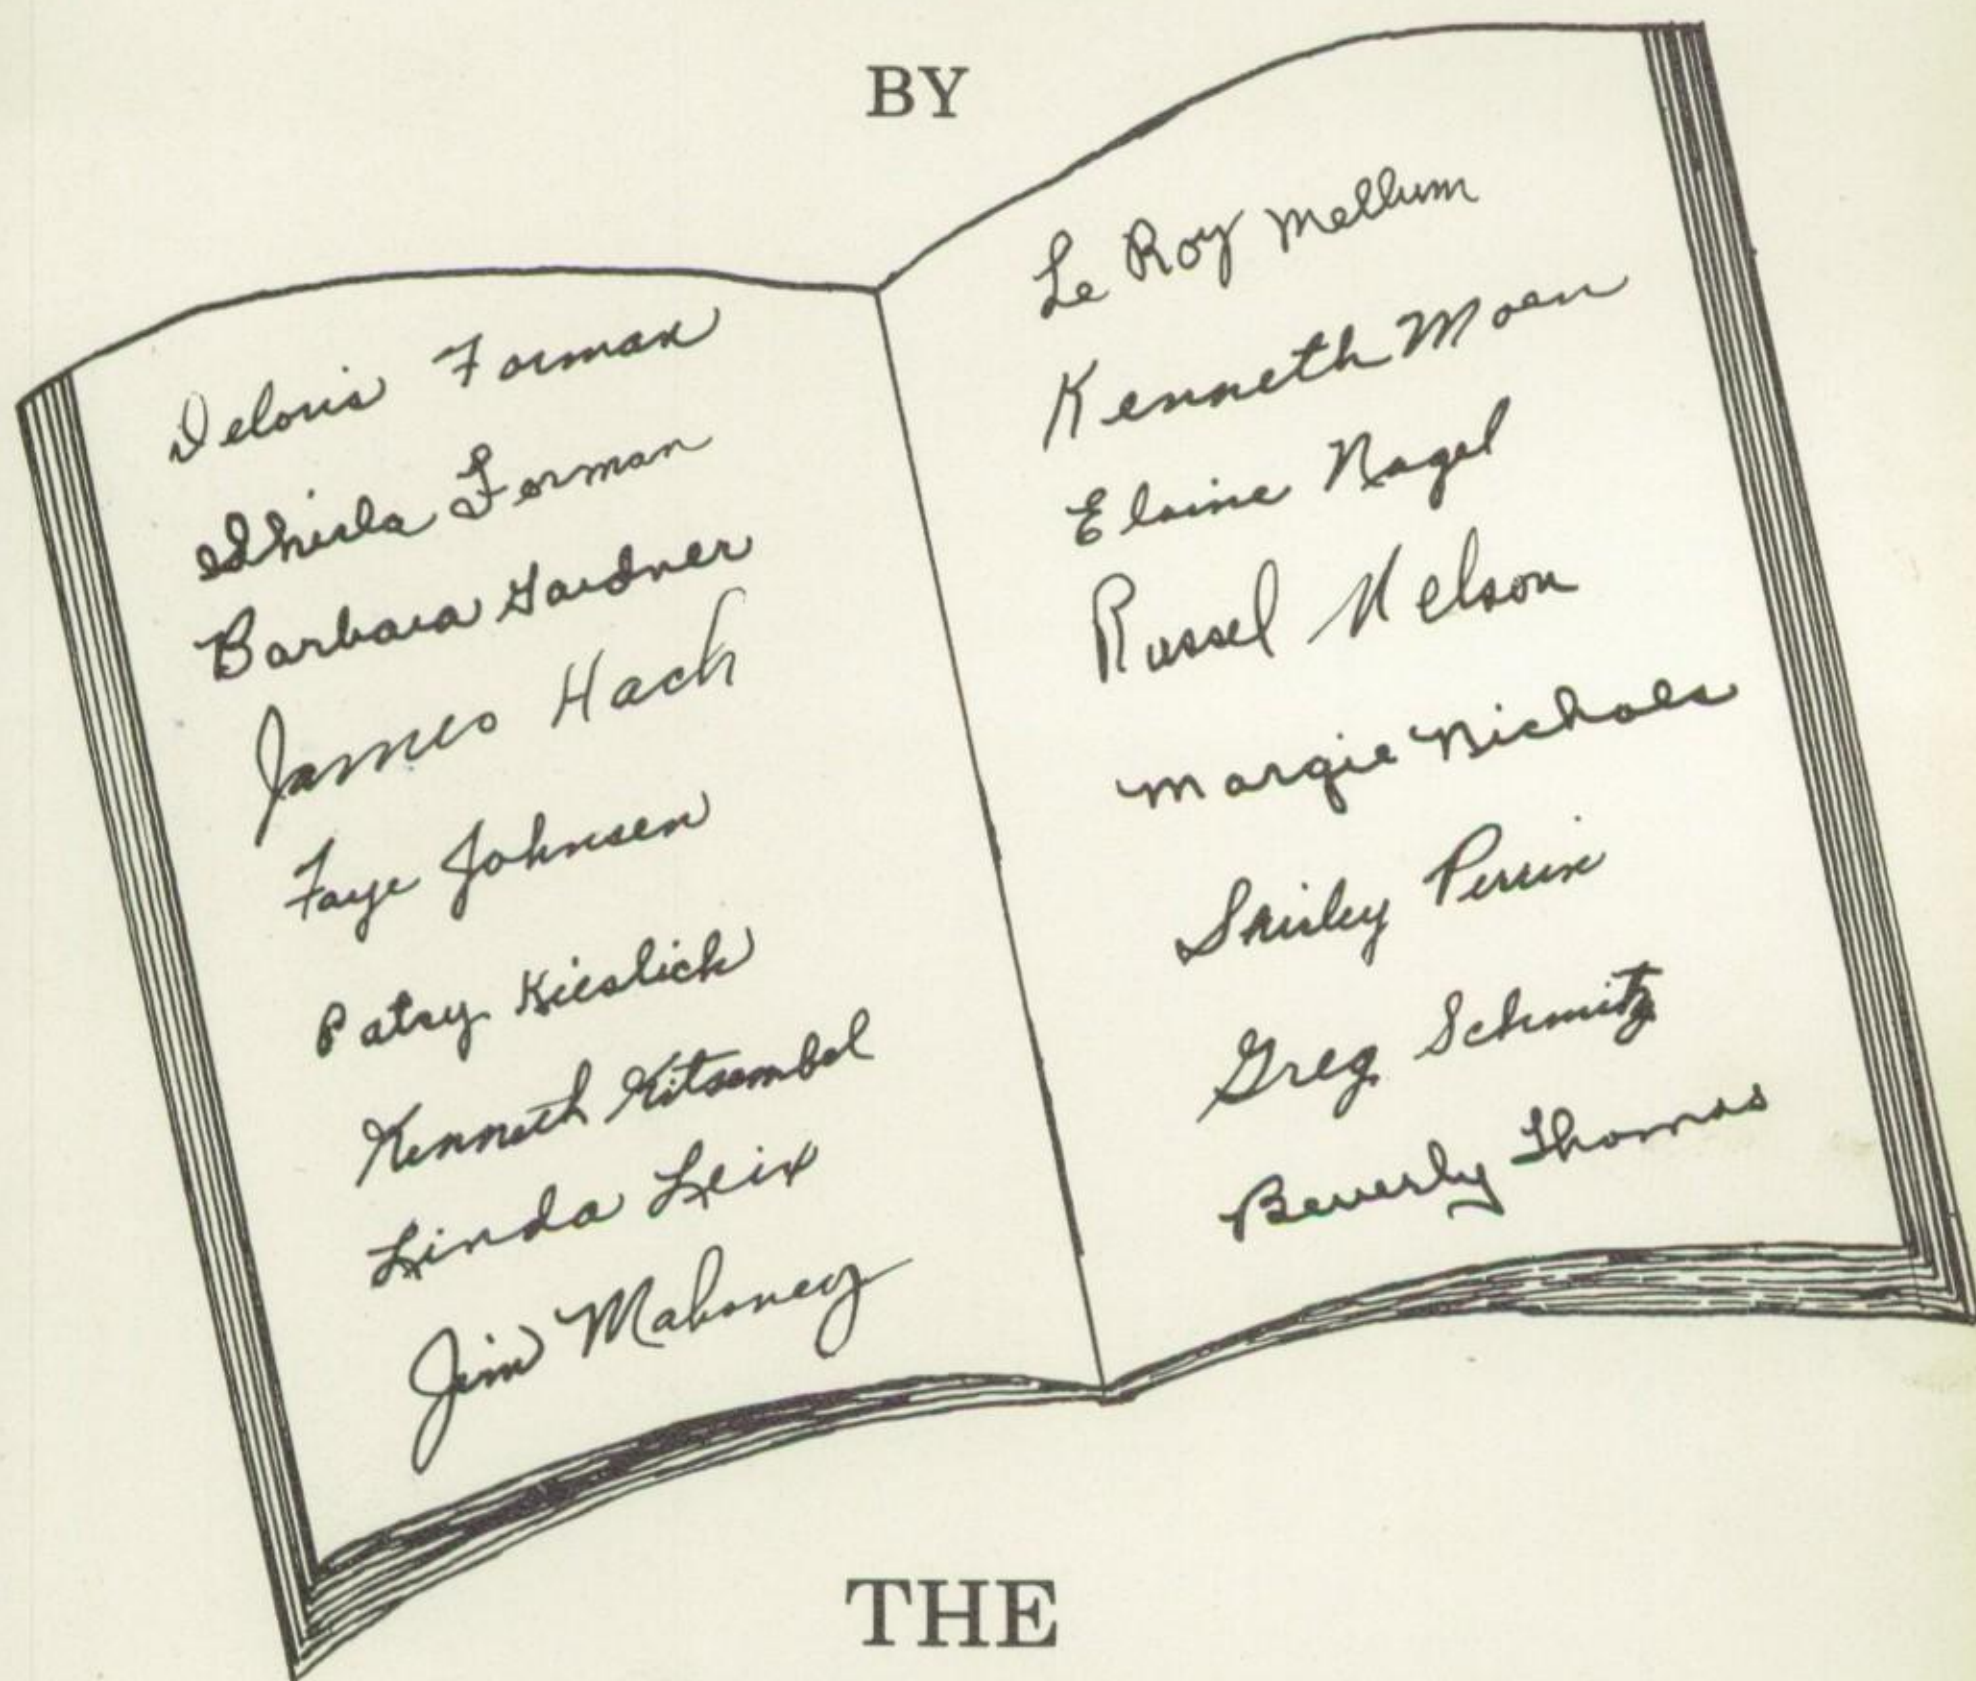

I will never forget having you for a Home Ec. teacher. You really have had to put up with something with us Jr. girls around and I guess I'm just about the worst. I hope my suit turns out alright. I hope I can take Home Ec. next yr because I would like to go on with it after high school. I know I will never be as half as good as you are. I don't have the patience to put up with people like myself. You are certainly a wonderful person. As ever Lara 2.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council regulates the functions of the school activities; such as, school parties, magazine sales, programs, selection of movies, social hours, rules of conduct, and many other activities. It meets once a month. Special meetings are called to discuss important issues that come up before the regular meeting. The class officers are the members of the Student Council, and the senior class officers are the officeholders.

STEERING COMMITTEE

The Steering Committee meets once a week to discuss affairs to be brought up before the Student Council. This group is composed of the presidents of each class.

SCIENCE I

MR. SCHMITZ

PRINCIPAL

MATHEMATICS SCIENCE

Our principal was Leonard Schmitz. He taught science and mathematics, (this year, geometry and algebra). Mr. Schmitz coached our athletics, advised the senior class and student council.

Mr. Schmitz has helped and guided us through the four years of our high school education, and we want him to know that we have appreciated his efforts.

AGRICULTURE

Eugene Lindauer taught physics, biology, and agriculture. He also presented the drivers' education class that was offered the sophomores. Mr. Lindauer was advisor of the junior class and Future Farmers of America.

WELDING

MR. LINDAUER

BIOLOGY II

Sophomore Typing

MISS WEDIGE

COMMERCIAL

The commercial subjects offered in the Cobb High School are: bookkeeping, typing—one year, shorthand—two years, and office practice—one year. Lillis Wedige is the commercial teacher. She also has charge of the library, advises the annual and teaches citizenship.

HOME ECONOMICS

Elizabeth Johnson teaches home economics, English II, and girls' physical education. There are three classes of home economics this year—freshmen, sophomore, and junior years.

The home economics room has a new cabinet to complete the sewing center. The cabinet consists of drawers for the students' sewing equipment. The top of the cabinet is used to display magazines and sewing books. A bulletin board above the cabinet is used for sewing instructions and current styles.

ENGLISH SOCIAL SCIENCES

Geneva Kramer is our English and social science teacher. The English classes consist of English I, and English III and IV (this year American Literature). The classes in the social sciences are American history and social problems. Mrs. Kramer coaches the senior class play and supervises forensics.

MUSIC

Our band instructor is Frank Jacobs. The music department has a band of 34 pieces, a chorus of 22 members, a pep band, and a junior band.

One activity of the band is to take part in the fair parades. This year our band participated at Livingston, Montfort, Highland, Muscoda, and Cobb Fairs.

Mr. Jacobs, with the co-operation of the Cobb Grade School Faculty, presented the operetta, "The Magic Beanstalk."

The instrumental and vocal students took part in the music contest at Darlington.

The 1954-55 Cobb Chapter of Future Farmers of America was made up of twenty-seven members. The officers for the year were Larry Novotny, President; Roger Trankle, Vice President; Roger Kingery, Treasurer; Alan Flesch, Secretary; Eugene Yerke, Reporter; and Larry Lindauer, Sentinel.

The Chapter started the year by attending the Fat Stock Show at Madison. This trip was followed by a trip to the Southern Breeders Bull Farm, and a tour through the University of Wisconsin's Dairy Barns at Madison, the soil experiment station at LaCrosse, and Oscar Mayers Packing plant at Madison.

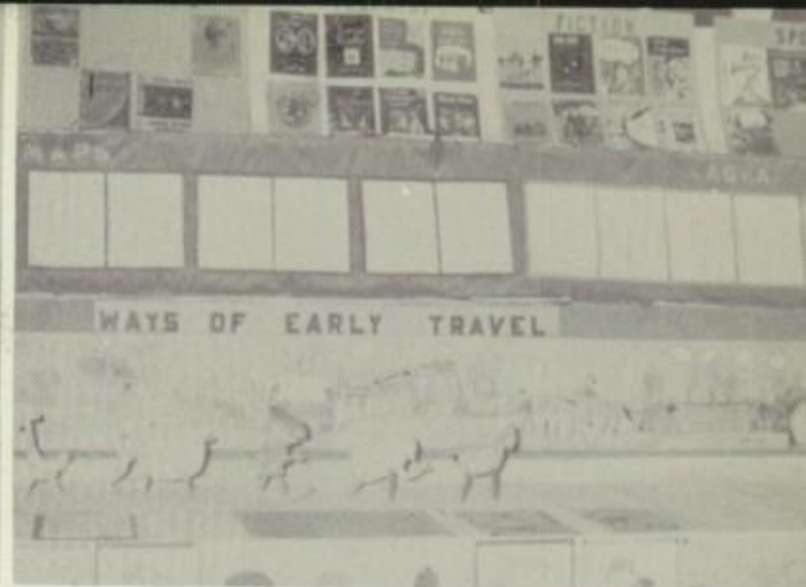

Two teams of boys were selected to represent Cobb in the State Judging Contest at Madison. The Dairy Cattle team was made up of Roger Trankle, Jim Kiley, and Ronnie Rule; and the Fat Stock team was composed of Russel Nelson, Larry Novotny, and Alan Flesch. We hope these boys do as well as our last year's team. The dairy Cattle team placed in the top twenty out of 175, and Roger Trankle placed eighth in the individual fat stock judging. This would be in a field of approximately 300 boys.

The Chapter sponsored a Variety Show on December 15. Prizes were awarded to the highest ticket sellers. Roger Kingery was given a FFA jacket; Larry Lindauer and Ronnie James were given name bracelets.

The FFA had several means of raising money. They sold Christmas Cards, made and sold cement hog troughs, and held the Variety Show. The profits were used to buy something new for the Ag Shop and send two delegates to the State FFA Convention. Roger Trankle and Roger Kingery applied for State Farmer Degrees.

The highlight of the year was the annual banquet. This year it was combined with the all-school banquet and was enjoyed by all.

MAGAZINE SALES

Roger Peterson, Faye Ann Johnsen, Norman Yerke, Linda Leix, Shirla Forman.

The magazine campaign started on September 10 and continued until September 20. There were goals to reach and privileges granted for the accomplishment of the goals. One hundred per cent participation of the student body was needed to receive any of the privileges.

Shirla Forman was high salesman with $118, and she received a pen and pencil set. Linda Leix sold $77 and received a camera. Norman Yerke's added up to $76 and got an ax and knife set. Faye Johnsen sold $72 and was given a manicure set. Roger Peterson collected $47.50 and was awarded a knife. There were twenty-five $20 or higher salesmen. The grand total sales amounted to $1,448.60. This was an all-time record.

The final privileges were: a trip to Madison to the State Basketball Tournament, a trip and picnic on the last day of school, attendance at a football game at Madison, a party, a costume dance, and attendance at all league baseball games.

The school's share in the 1954 magazine campaign was $514.28 minus the expenses, $118.65, which gave a profit of $395.63. This money went for movies, "Cobb Kernels," and records.

Jim Mahoney, a senior, assistant manager in 1953, was automatically the magazine campaign manager in 1954, and his junior assistant was Judy Holmes.

GRADE FACULTY

Mrs. Day, Principal, seventh and eighth grades, Mrs. Schroeder, fifth and sixth grades; Mrs. Hughes, third and fourth grades; Mrs. Christenson, first and second grades, were the Cobb State Graded School Faculty, 1954-1955.

The Cobb Graded School participated in the exhibits, and the parade at the school fair. Their float was called "The Kettles at the Cobb Fair."

Mr. Schmiz was coach of the grade basketball team.

Mr. Jacobs, with the help of the grade teachers and the pupils successfully presented the operetta, "The Magic Beanstalk."

The fifth and sixth grades got a new set of the "World Book Encyclopedia" this year. Our old set was transferred to the third and fourth grade room.

The third and fourth grade room is bright and cheery with the newly decorated walls and new drapes.

All grade school rooms expect to have new bookcases. The Grade School Board allowed $1.50 per child for the purchase of new library books.

We had an average enrollment of nearly a hundred pupils and the largest firstgrade enrollment in the history of the Cobb Graded School.

Several students from the seventh and eighth grades took part in the State Spelling Contest.

The eighth grade graduation exercises were held with the high school commencement exercises on May 20, 1955.

THE TEN BOOKWORMS.

AND

8th

When school opened on September 3, 1951, our class consisted of: Jim Mahoney, Faye Ann Johnsen, Patsey Kieslich, Kenneth Moen, Deloris Forman, Beverly Thomas, James Hach, Elaine Nagel, LeRoy Mellum, Margie Nichols, Shirla Forman, Greg Schmitz, Barbara Gardner, Donna Knutson, Linda Leix, Douglas Anderson, Shirley Perrin, Robert Daney, Carol Walker, Russel Nelson, Colleen Kartman, Betty Tomas and Everett Shepherd. We were initiated on September 11. During our first year we lost Robert Daney and Everett Shepherd.

At the beginning of the sophomore year we found that Carol Walker had entered the Highland High School; James Davies, Donna Anderson, and Norean Reuther had joined us. The main event of the year was initiating the freshmen.

It was with enthusiasm that we looked forward to our junior year. Donna Anderson, Norean Reuther, dropped out of school; Donna Knutson went to Livingston, and Betty Tomas entered Dodgeville. We received our class rings in November.

The big event of our third year was our Junior Prom. The theme was "Heart of My Heart." The gym was gaily decorated with a solid red ceiling and silver hearts were hung from it. Music was furnished by Gus Furman and his orchestra. The Grand March was led by King Kenneth Moen and Queen Beverly Thomas. Mr. Lindauer was our capable advisor.

August 30, 1954 found seventeen senior students back for their final year. Douglas Anderson had not returned and Kenneth Kitsemble had enrolled. Our class pictures were taken the first week of school. Announcements and name cards were ordered. On October 29 we gave our class play entitled, "Aunt Tillie Goes To Town" under the direction of Mrs. Kramer.

The annual staff was selected in October. Our class colors were chosen—light and dark blue; flower, white chrysanthemum; and motto, "The higher the climb, the broader the view."

Our high school activities came to a close with Baccalaureate Exercises on May 15; Class Night Exercises on May 18; and Graduation Exercises on May 20, 1955.

1982

May 22, 1982, the time was 7:45 a. m. This was the city—New York, on a Saturday morning. The foggy, secluded alley was being inspected by two private-eye men. They were looking for the 17 lost members of the Cobb High School Class of 1955. Our job was to find them!

Our first clue led us to a Broadway theater. There on the stage doing her routine dance was Margie Nichols with aging Fred Astaire. Margie tipped us off to the fact that if we'd go to the new 1982 Smitty Bach Car Factory we'd find one of our classmates.

We just missed Greg Schmitz, he had left to drive a member of the 1957 Cobb High School Class home.

Suddenly we heard a loud crash. We saw that a 1982 streamlined Buick had been run over by a new atom-powered truck. Fortunately the driver, Russel Nelson, was not seriously hurt. As an ambulance pulled up, three nurses jumped out and bandaged Russel. One nurse was Linda Leix. She told us she was a registered nurse and very busy over at the Johns Hopkins Hospital.

We decided to go in a restaurant and have a late breakfast. The owner was flipping pancakes right and left. As he turned around—no kidding it was James Edward Mahoney! Business was picking up and service was good.

We hailed a taxi on Fifth Avenue. As we got ready to pay the driver we noticed it was Kenny Kitsemble. He told us that in five years he'd get a pension. Since we were old friends—we got a bargain.

The rush hour was beginning and the streets were very crowded. We were constantly bumping into people, and we ran into two slowly plodding pedestrians. They were LeRoy Mellum and Jim Hatch. They told us that they had both become prosperous farmers and were in town for the big Rodeo.

The heat was becoming terrific—so we decided to go to the Rodeo, too. As we were about to board the bus, a horn was loudly honking. Our eyes scanned a new Belvadear Plymouth with Sketter Moen, a million dollar play boy, behind the wheel. He offered us a ride to the show. He told us he was part owner in the Skeeterbalm Drug Stores—where he was a pharmacist.

The Rodeo was well under way when we arrived. The main attraction had just begun, and we weren't surprised to see Faye Ann Johnson riding her famous "Palomino Pal." She had always been a lover of horses. Beside her was the famous movie actress, Barbara Gardner, well-known for her latest picture, "The Cowboy and Me."

On our way out of the show we passed a stand where Patsy Kieslich was selling cook books. She told us that her best customer was Elaine Nagel, who was now attending Columbia University. Patsy had said that Elaine was planning to be married this summer and was brushing up on her cooking—the lucky guy!

We were getting hungry and just happened to hear a shrill voice screaming "Peanuts, Popcorn, Cracker Jacks!" Why it was our old friend Shirla Forman. Yes, she was married and had followed out the idea she had liked in "Cheaper By the Dozen."

All of a sudden we heard sirens blowing. A message was flashing over the radio. Police woman, Deloris Forman, reported that the famous gangsters "Commodore Perry and Her Partner" had just held up the Second National Bank. Our Job! Stop them! As we sped down the highway we spotted the get-away car. With our rocket guns we shot the wheels of the car and it finally slid to a stop. We pulled the bandits out. Oh no! It was Shirley Perrin and Bev Thomas up to their old high school tricks. But since they were old acquaintances we only gave them twenty years.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1955 of the village of Cobb, town of Eden, county of Iowa, and the state of Wisconsin, do on this the third day of March, nineteen hundred fifty-five, being of sound mind and memory, hereby give our last will and testament.

Greg Schmitz wills his desire to go steady to Key Thomas.

Marge Nichols wills her dancing ability to Bill Hill.

Barbara Garner leaves her party-line gossip to Roger Kingery.

Beverly Thomas wills her date book to the Sophomore girls.

Deloris Forman wills her ability to get along with the teachers to the Junior boys.

Kenneth Moen gives his pitching ability to Roger Hugill.

Jim Mahoney wills his ——?—— well, Jim thinks he'd better keep everything he has.

Russel Nelson wills his excess energy to Alan Flesch.

Linda Leix leaves her ability to study to Kenny Womack.

LeRoy Mellum wills his farming talents to Mike Mahoney.

James Hach gives his smile to Billy Yerke.

Kenneth Kitsemble leaves his height to Norman Yerke.

Elaine Nagel wills her ability to keep quiet to Janis Perrin.

Faye Ann Johnsen bequeaths her Arizona "Male" and "Mail" to Mary Halsey.

Shirla Forman wills her magazine selling to the next magazine campaign salesmen.

Patricia Kieslich gives her laugh to Sharon Tucker.

Shirley Perrin leaves her complaints and grievances to Sheila Kramer.

The seniors in the band will their musical talents to next year's band.

Beverly, Shirley, Elaine and Faye will their ability to be running around during school hours to Carol Mellum, Nancy Drury, and Nancy Nichols.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We, Barbara Gardner and Deloris Forman, the testators, have set our hands and seal hereto this third day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five.

Dear Mrs. Johnson,
It sure has been wonderful having you as far a teacher and friend!
You have made my life pleasant. I thank you for everything.
As ever,
Faye Johnson

Dear Mrs. Johnson;
I'll remember you as one of the most wonderful teachers I ever had. Thanks loads for everything. The party day was grand. A good luck Happiness to a very nice marriage.

Dear Mrs. Johnson, won't it seem funny without us? You sure are a good teacher. I hope you teach in Cobbs in the years to come. The Party sure was nice.
Best of luck to a wonderful person.
Love,
Barbara Lubner.

Dear Mrs. Johnson, you have been such a wonderful home economics and English teacher to us that I cannot thank you enough. I wish you luck and happiness.
As always,
Karen Fingersen

Dear Mrs. Johnson;
You've been a wonderful friend, and teacher, these last four years and they won't be forgotten. I wish you & Vic your handsome husband lots of success
He's a wonderful fella!
As ever
Jim Mahoney

Dear Mrs. Johnson,
Even though you never were my teacher, very much, I felt as though you were one of my very best friends. I guess I did give you a pretty bad time in freshman english. Thanks for all the cake, pie, cookies, etc.
etc. you have given me through the years. I wish you and your husband all the luck in the world.
Even though he did make me up in the factory for a while.
As always Bry Schmitz

Dear Mrs. Johnson. It has been wonderful having you as a Home E.C. teacher this year. I always thought of you as the best teacher. Lots of Luck to you in your future years. Don't forget all your private talks.
Loads of Luck and Success
As Ever
Virginia Tremelling

Dear Mrs. Johnson,

It sure has been wonderful having you as a teacher and friend. You have made life here at school much more interesting and exciting. I'll always remember the nice things you have done for us and the party you gave us.

I think we are lucky to have such a wonderful teacher. Best of everything to you.
As Ever
Shirley Fenn

Dear Mrs. Johnson,
I am very thankful to you for all the help
you have given me.
Best wishes
Judy Haines

Dear Mrs. Johnson,
Thank for all of the helps and guidance you have given me - It is very deeply appreciated Best wishes
E. Laine
Haged

Dear Mrs. Johnson,
Ah, you wonderful teacher. You've been just grand to all of us and I'm sure that we all appreciate it now, that we realize we're going out alone in this "Great Big World". Isn't it funny how four years have slipped by so fast and now
it's time to leave C.H.S.
I'll miss all the nice things you ever did for me and the senior party for us yesterday was such a nice surprise.

Good by, and I wish you all the happiness in the world to a wonderful teacher (such a Gay one).
As Ever,
Beverly Thomas.
